Verified Findings

[MEDIUM] Navigation layout contains overflow

Category: Mobile Experience

Evidence: Navigation overflow was detected. Navigation container width: 360px. Viewport width: 1440px. Viewport ratio: 0.25. 12 navigation item(s) detected.

Commercial Impact: Navigation overflow can make menus harder to use and may cause links or controls to extend beyond their intended visible area.

Recommended Action: Review navigation spacing, menu width and responsive behaviour across common screen sizes.

[MEDIUM] Mobile layout contains clipped navigation content

Category: Mobile Experience

Evidence: 2 critically clipped element(s) were detected at a 390px viewport. Navigation overflow was also detected.

Commercial Impact: Mobile guests may encounter cut-off or difficult-to-use navigation and page content.

Recommended Action: Review the mobile navigation and responsive layout at common phone widths and remove visible content clipping.

[LOW] Google Analytics not detected

Category: Analytics

Evidence: RK Monitor did not detect common Google Analytics or Google Tag Manager markers.

Commercial Impact: The property may have limited visibility into website and booking behaviour.

Recommended Action: Confirm whether analytics are configured and tracking useful conversion events.

[LOW] Guest information may be difficult to scan

Category: Guest Information

Evidence: <https://thehouseatramsgate.co.uk/faq/> contains 1 detected heading(s).

Commercial Impact: Guests may need more time to find important information.

Recommended Action: Break information into clear sections with descriptive headings.

Recommended Next Step
